FIRST EDITION OF SAGSE CENTROAMERICA

For the first time, Central America will have a Casino exhibition specialising in the region. SAGSE-Centroamérica will be held on 26 and 27 May this year in Panama, at the ATLAPA centre, the largest Convention Centre in the region.

Important European companies such as Recreativos Franco, TCS-JH, Gaming Partners International (GPI), Naipes Fournier, Hispania Casino Equipment, Gaming Signs Europe, Nova Desitec, Zero Labs, Elaut, Betstone, Edue, Gamey Industries and Wh Munzprufer Berlin will all show their wares at the fare. The event is set to be a great success, with 98% of the exhibition area already being booked.

The "2nd American Congress of Gaming Regulators", sponsored by Recreativos Franco, has been timed to coincide with the fair, and will concentrate on "New Technologies for Modern Gaming: On-Line Systems". Delegations from associations of Casino operators from Panama, Costa Rica, Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Uruguay, Paraguay, Argentina, Spain and the European Casino Association have already confirmed their participation. The Regulators will exchange points of view and experiences regarding the use of on-line systems applied to slots, and the economic benefits of this type of management control for the countries in which they are in operation.

G2E MOVES DATES TO NOVEMBER IN 2006

Show managers have announced that the Gaming Expo (G2E) 2006 has been slated for November 14 - 16 at the Las Vegas Convention Centre. "Our decision to move the 2006 event to later in the year is a function of venue availability and logistics. An overwhelming majority of G2E exhibitors and attendees prefer the convention centre's central hall, and these new dates allow us to once again utilize this favoured space", said Frank J. Fahrenkopf, Jr., President and CEO of the American Gaming Association (AGA).
